Junior Ring Dinner

October 27, 2000

On September 20th the MEREDITH COLLEGE CLASS OF 2002 received their class rings at the traditional JUNIOR CLASS RING DINNER. The rings arrived encased in small, wooden ring boxes and were delivered along with silver, engraved picture frames. Several surprised juniors found themselves teary-eyed as they read LETTERS FROM THEIR PARENTS. This truly special evening will be forever treasured by the class of 2002.

The FATHER-DAUGHTER DANCE was held on the night before Alan, an elegant man, fathers and their sophomore daughters danced the night away to a live band playing a variety of songs. A slide show, showcasing MEMORIES FROM THE PAST, ran continuously throughout the evening.

DECEMBER COMMENCEMENT

December 16, 2000

The graduate candidates marched down the aisle on December 16.
They carried themselves with pacing steps to a familiar beat.

Reciting his speech with charm and grace
He drew smiles from ear to ear and from face to face

When the ceremony concluded, the graduates gathered outside in search of their families who were calling for them with joyous cries.

As the graduates left, their dreams could finally begin to soar, for it was such a long road they had traveled...and such a journey they were about to endure.

101st Night was full of fun and excitement as seniors celebrated the countdown to graduation. The seniors sang karaoke, ate cake and reminisced about the old days even as they expressed excitement about their last days as Meredith students. The evening ended in the Johnson Hall Rotunda where the seniors sang their favorite Meredith songs.

February 22, 2001

The Charming Dinner was held in the formally decorated Bell Dining Hall. Katie McNamara, dinner chair, gave a speech and read a poem prepared especially for the event. Music played during dinner and cameras flashed as sophomores enjoyed the evening. The charms everyone wore symbolized what Meredith is all about...unity.

Each year the Maryville Recreation Association (MRA) sponsors a weekend for the Maryville Community to invite their "little friends" to participate in activities that focus on fun and fellowship. The theme of this year's Lil' Friends Weekend was "Wild, Wild, West." All kids who attended had a blast. There were events such as a hula-hoop contest, an egg race, slaying cream tights, and a scavenger hunt. Crafts were made, plays with smiles and new friendships. Hours of fun were spent in the pool. So many memories were made during Lil' Friends Weekend.

"It takes COURAGE to grow up and become WHO YOU REALLY ARE."

The Spring Formal was held at the Raleigh Civic Center. The theme was "Splash" and there were aquatic decorations around the dance floor. The Junior class also sold T-Shirts that were great for both males and females. The dance had a DJ who played various music. The dance floor was busy all night. Meredith girls and their dates enjoyed a night of fun, food, and dancing.

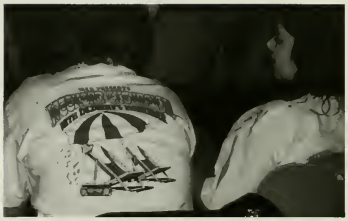
MEMORABLE NIGHT



Spring Fling was an afternoon of food, friends, and music. About 100 girls came out to eat pizza and listen to Weekend Excursion and Desiree's Hammer. Although we had to celebrate the event indoors due to unfortunate weather, the atmosphere was festive and full of excitement.

DEVOTED TO: STUNT

Stunt was held in the courtyard this year due to beautiful weather. Meredith girls put on their outfits, shows and participated in the bat-spin, 3-legged race, tug-of-war, and a crazy obstacle course. The tug-of-war was once again the hit of the evening. All classes did a great job and went all out. The sophomores took first place, but the seniors were not far behind. The evening winded down by watching the movie Girls Just Wanna Have Fun in the courtyard sponsored by the Residence Hall Board.

FRESHMEN FIRE & WATER DINNER

April 24, 2001

ANGELS WITH ONLY ONE WING

Freshmen Fire and Water Dinner 2001 was a treat for all who attended. The dining hall was transformed into a beach scene, fitting the theme, Under the Boardwalk, to a tee. Friends had the chance to come together and talk of all the fun, and not so fun, times during freshmen year. Everyone seemed to fully enjoy the freshmen video which showed what our Class of 2004 time capsule would hold when buried. During the ceremony it was exciting to be able to rid ourselves of the idea of everything bad we had experienced, while also embracing the good and seeing all our eggs floating int the fountain. Even though it was raining during the Fire and Water ceremony, the memories made during the year will never be washed away.

Senior Class Picnic

April 25, 2001

Meredith College held its annual senior picnic, an event that as a tradition concluded a friendly competition between senior and junior class members. Prior to the afternoon event, seniors would gather to decide upon a spot in which to hide the croak, a Meredith tradition. Then they would compile a poem that serves to provide juniors with subtle hints in reference to the location of the hidden object. The juniors traditionally have one week to search for the croak; however, this year they came up short, allowing the seniors to claim victory. (The object had been cleverly placed inside of a drainage pipe.) After the conclusion of the main event, students returned to the dining hall where they enjoyed dinner, cake, music, and fellowship

MOTHER'S LOVE THE IMPOSSIBLE

MOTHER~DAUGHTER TEA

April 29, 2001

The Mother~Daughter Tea was held at the Cincinnati Marriot. The room was full of mothers and daughters. Many mothers had traveled from all over to spend time with their daughters. The surprise letter the mothers had written to their daughters brought tears to many eyes. The slide show also brought back many cherished memories of times long ago. This was a day of re-living and making memories. The food and fellowship were wonderful.

FRIENDSHIP IS THE SOUL THAT HOLDS THE WORLD TOGETHER

CLASS DAY

May 12, 2001

The rain did not dampen the spirits at Class Day 2001. The event began with the procession of the daisy chain and song by some of Meredith's finest. Once the rain pushed everyone inside Jones Auditorium, the sophomores and seniors traded remembrances of their time together. This special day was marked by the joy, laughter, and tears of long-time friends who must now part ways.

DEAR KRISTEN

Throughout your formative years,
You have astonished all of us with
Your persistence and commitment
In reaching and surpassing your "Dreams".

We love you very much and wish you
Health and happiness in Life,
As it is just beginning...

Love,
Dad, Mom, Tim & Jeff

Kate Davies

KATE

You have always worked very hard to achieve your best and now you reap the rewards. As you graduate from college and move on to the next phase of your life, remember we are all extremely proud of you and love you to the end of the earth.

Janly, Beth, Lauren (peasant) and Grandma J.

Mary Elizabeth Rhame

CONGRATULATIONS BETSY!

We love you and are so proud of you!

Love, Mama, Daddy, and Pattie

Paige Diane Caviness

God loaned to us a little bundle of joy
To nurture and love and raise for him
This was a frightening task and we often questioned
Our ability to raise this precious little gem

But we loved and nurtured her as best we knew how,
Taught her to love and respect and do the things she should
And with only a little bump here and a little stitch there
With God's help she made it to womanhood

She worked diligently throughout her school years,
Studying and doing her homework without a fuss
And if parents are graded on how their child turns out,
There is no doubt about it, we get an 'A' plus

Mom and Dad

Sarah Wood

Jamye M. Hickman

We give the honor to God and the hard work to you!
We are so proud of you! Georgia Tech, look out!

Mom, Dad, Triva & Dayz

Tonya Denise Lester

I know the past four years has been a long, long road to the end, but it seems to me that just yesterday you were still in High School. You have conquered all that you have set out to do, no matter how difficult it was and I know you will continue to do so. I am very proud of you. Congratulations!

Love, Mom

What can I say about my sister? I bet mom and dad have said it all. Well, all I can say is I can't believe she's graduating. I know she does the best that she can do. That's why she is an excellent student. I am proud of her for what she has accomplished throughout these years. Even though she is a really good student, she is an even greater sister. I am proud of you. Good luck at whatever comes your way.

Love, Andy

I can't begin to express how proud I am of you- Not only for all of your academic accomplishments throughout your High School and College career, but also for the person you have developed into. The strength of your personality and the courage of your spirit to pursue your goals with absolute conviction and perseverance combined with your caring and compassion for those less fortunate than others, are truly personal traits that can only propel one through life successfully, focused, confident, and happy.

As your father, I can now only step back and watch the world bestow the gifts and rewards to someone as deserving as you. And, as your father, I will always fill with pride that you are my beautiful daughter.

With all my love, Dad

Well you finally did it. Again.

Congratulations on everything you have achieved so far. I know you're not done yet, but you have made me and everyone else in the family proud. Good luck in Grad School and remember that we all love you very much. Keep your mind free and open and you will succeed at whatever road you decide to travel down.

Love, Bryen

Kate Breen

Cool then. Cool now. Cool always.

CONGRATULATIONS, KATE.

We love you.

For the "little girl in the tay closet", who has blossomed into a "shining star". You have accomplished so much since you began your journey as part of the Class of 2001 in what seems like just yesterday. We all have watched you grow, and shared in the pride of your success. Now, we are blessed to be part of this special moment in your life, and to bear witness to all that you have strived so hard to reach. On behalf of the entire extended family, may you reach every goal you set forth for yourself both personally and professionally. The strength, support, and unwavering love of your family helped you in this wonderful opportunity to build a solid foundation from which to do great things in life. Always know in your heart how very much you mean to all of us, and as you prepare for your future journeys we will continue to be there to offer support when you feel the need.

Congratulations on this magnificent achievement,

With Love Always,

Mom, Dad, Bonnie, Neil, Madisan, and the entire extended family

Meredith College Class of 2001

We are so proud of our very own "Angel." Please continue to fly high and reach for the stars, keep your halo polished, be patient with others who don't fly as fast as you do, "teach" the little ones to have peace in their hearts, and never let your dreams take you so far that we con't reach out to love and encourage you! Congratulations! Remember... "when you have the choice to sit it out in life or dance...DANCE! It doesn't get much better than this!

We love you, Sunshine!
Daddy and Moma

You were born with that will to succeed and that competitive spirit. You got that from Dad. You got your kind heart from Mom. We know you will be successful at anything you attempt to accomplish now and in the future. We want you to know how proud we are and that we love you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Jason

Kate Sension

DEAR KATE,

Your journey continues,
onward you go.
Try to do what you know how to do,
That's good.
Attempt to do what you do not know,
That's better.
Keep on until you learn to do what you didn't know,
That's best.

And friend that you are,
As good as you've been,
The future is yours.
Go Kate Go!

You make us so proud!

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Rachel

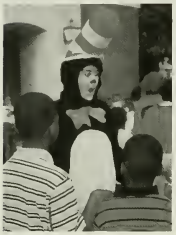
Well, our precious little bundle (that would be you) has met this most daunting and important challenge- graduation from college!! An accomplishment about which you can be exceedingly proud. A most critical milestone for you that will touch everything you do. A place where many of your most important friendships and alliances have formed, and will remain for the rest of your life. An experience that will provide for you a great reservoir of skill, ability, wisdom, confidence, toughness, self-esteem and much more. A place where you have learned not to be intimidated by education and new learning--which is a good thing because it will continue your whole life long. A place, we have witnessed, where you have fallen in love--with life, and all the goodness available in and from it, when you do it right. We are so proud of and happy for you; we, and we're sure you, can hardly wait to see the next chapter!

Love always,
Mom, Dad, _____, Sarah, Rachael, Catherine, Billy & Oscar

Julie Anna Dimmock



Today and always
Your family is proud of you-
Proud of the path that you have made
That is all your own

We see the many unique
Talents and gifts you have to share.
We see your innocence, your enthusiasm,
And how deeply you care
And hurt sometimes.

We see your hard earned wisdom
And your achievement,
Your courage and compassion,
Your uncompromised goodness.
We see the difference
You make in the world.

But those are not the reasons that we love you. We love you
Because you are God's gift to us.
As you turn to a new chapter in your life,
We know God will be with you
Guiding your path to new wonders and blessings.

We love you!

Daddy, Mama, and Laurie

Dear Samantha

To my Rainbow Brite,
I have stood in amazement and filled with pride,
as you have grown over the years.
All your accomplishments, dance, soccer to college graduation. You are a compassionate, thoughtful, caring, young lady and my friend and daughter.
I am excited about the bright future that lies ahead of you and the plans you have created for yourself.
My blessings and love are always with you.

Oodles of love, Mom

All our love and well wishes to a special sister, God bless.

CONGRATULATIONS KATHERINE!

We have truly enjoyed watching you grow through the years. The "pure joy" you have brought to our family has been a blessing and a gift from God. We love you and Jesus loves you, too. We are so glad you love the Lord and have learned to understand ISA 55:8-9. We know you will always make his presence known in your life. II Cor.4:7-12

We love you, Dad & Mom

Kate,

I know we don't get always get along and we won't, but I am glad we've become closer. Thanks for finally accepting NSYNC. All I have to say about that is, "Whoo, Whoo, Wha, Wha, Whoo, cause I just got paid!" I'll never forget that b-day and JC's rendition of "No Strings Attached" and Joey's rendition of "Bye, Bye, bye".

Congratulations! I love you lots! L-bell

Dearest Katherine,

In your life, I know you've learned at least four things:
1. Peppercorns really are as hot as they say.
2. Glass is sharp.
3. Candy does cause cavities.
4. You can scream all you want, but you're not getting off until the ride is over.

I don't know what they taught you in college, but I know you did all your homework.

Congratulations! I wish you all the fine things! Love, Olivia

Congratulations for all the hard work you have done! Love, Zach
